CATALOGUE ESSAY

Extremely spacious, with flexible accommodation and a fantastic sun deck, the luxury yacht DEJA TOO switches effortlessly from the perfect family charter yacht to a vibrant party venue. With a surprising amount of space on the sun deck, the aft sun pads can be partially shaded by an awning to escape the midday sun. A large table offers deck dining with a view, while a jacuzzi, further extensive sun pads and a forward seating area form a scenic spot for cocktails at sundown. After dark, the sun deck converts to a dancefloor, with a state-of-the-art surround sound system and dropdown cinema screens.

Entertaining is not limited to the decks; this superyacht charter has multiple options for drinks and dining, across three levels. The main deck saloon and dining area make the ideal setting for formal occasions, with rich cream furnishings and a Versace dinner service. The sky lounge is more informal, with wide picture windows on three sides, a bar and an attractive bay window leading onto the bridge deck aft dining area. Here a round table for 12 provides shade for a long, relaxing lunch and guests can retire to a bank of comfortable sofas that curve around the stern. The accommodation on this versatile superyacht can be adapted to change two double cabins on the lower deck into one full beam VIP suite, with seating area and his and her bathrooms. This is facilitated by a removable partition wall between the two forward cabins, which allows guests to choose their preferred configuration. A further two double cabins with en suite marble bathrooms are positioned aft on the lower deck. The superbly spacious master suite on the main deck features oversized porthole windows, a large sitting area, study area, walk-in wardrobe and en suite bathroom. A single cabin is positioned aft of the master suite, with an en suite bathroom and optional pullman berth.
